The WEEKLY MESSENGER has at least double the circulation of any other paper published here. These facts are not a matter of controversy among the advertisers of Owensboro. The MESSENGER is the largest and best paper published in Kentucky outside of Louisville, and carries more foreign advertising than any other Kentucky paper except the Louisville papers. See advertisement in Part V.

Publisher's announcement—Paducah is the most rapidly growing city in the South. Rate of population increase from '80 to '90, 50 per cent; '90 to 1900, 52 per cent. It is the metropolis of Southwest Kentucky, and the best city in the State outside of Louisville. The SUN is the only Republican daily in this Congressional district, and guarantees a clientele no other paper reaches.

The Republicans have carried Paducah on State and national issues at every election since 1895.

The SUN guarantees circulation and cheerfully furnishes advertisers aid and information.

Publisher's announcement.—COMFORT has a bona fide monthly mailed circulation of one million and a quarter. You find its columns full of good reading matter, well illustrated, and of a merit ahead of the general mail-order magazines. That's why COMFORT is read and has become the plain people's popular paper. Six million readers watch for its monthly coming. It's the plain, common middle classes, especially the ones living in the country and small towns, who find the city store counters brought right into their homes by the mail-order business. COMFORT has been the leading mail-order paper since it was established, fourteen years ago, and has always made the rural and small town home its special field. "If you put it in COMFORT it pays."

Publisher's announcement.—Of the several mediums offered the advertiser entering the Baltimore field none has more genuine claims than the Baltimore News. Its circulation is large and growing and its methods are straightforward and direct. The News is practically the only evening paper of Baltimore. It has a larger circulation in its home city than any other newspaper, barring none. It covers a field which three morning papers divide. The News never cuts rates, publishes no objectionable advertising, and prints the daily figures of its circulation.

BALTIMORE WECKER,

ESTABLISHED 1851.

The Leading German Sunday Paper in the South.

Published by CHARLES H. MILTER,

7 Post Office Avenue, Baltimore, Md.

THE WECKER is the largest German Illustrated Newspaper in the South, and being a strictly family paper, costing only 3 cents, and issued every Sunday morning, containing the latest Telegraphic Dispatches besides Local News, and being served by carriers in the city and suburbs, goes to more homes than any other German paper in the State. Circulates largely in Baltimore and the State, as well as in Washington, D. C., Virginia, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Publisher's announcement.—The official organ of the Bishop of Maryland. We can affirm with candor that no periodical in the country circulates among a higher class (thousand for thousand) than the MARYLAND CHURCHMAN. The social, financial and cultured element of this State will largely be found members of the Episcopal Church. In seeking new channels of trade, you will discover that the purchasing power of this denomination in Maryland leads all others. As an advertising medium the MARYLAND CHURCHMAN presents unusual facilities to put yourself before the wealthy classes of this State.

Established 1823.

ZION'S HERALD,

BOSTON.

This paper is an excellent advertising medium because:

It is the only Methodist paper published in New England, where the Methodist denomination is the largest Protestant denomination except one.

The oldest Methodist paper in the world, it has gathered a constituency which believes in it.

As a religious paper it strongly affects the home life.

Others have found it profitable.

It reaches each week 18,000 families of the cream of the country.

Publisher's announcement.—The MICHIGAN STATE DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper of prominence in Northern Michigan, and thus occupies a field distinctively its own. Demands upon its advertising space are so great that additional pages are the rule instead of the exception. Considering its circulation and influence, rates are low, and shrewd advertisers insist at the agencies that it be included in their list.

AND THE "STOREKEEPER."

A Peerless Combination.

On September 10 the Trade Journal Association of Detroit purchased the Storekeeper of Saginaw and the latter publication was united with TRADE. The Storekeeper represented the wholesale and manufacturing interests of the Saginaw Valley and had a circulation in that territory of about 3,000. All Storekeeper subscribers will receive TRADE instead, and deducting duplicates about 1,500 new subscribers will be added thereby to TRADE's list. This will give TRADE an actual paid circulation of over 5,000 among Michigan's best merchants.

Advertising Rates Not Advanced.

While the advertising value of TRADE's space has been greatly enhanced, we have decided not to advance our advertising rates for the present and offer advertisers who wish to reach the grocery, hardware, dry goods or general merchants of Michigan the best proposition, rates and circulation considered, ever made by any trade paper. We should be pleased to quote our best rates to any one desiring to cover the Michigan field and guarantee the best service for the money.

Publisher's announcement.—The last census gave Grand Rapids a population of 87,565, and when one considers that the EVENING PRESS circulates 19,000 papers in the city and 11,000 within a radius of one hundred miles of this city, it proves to the careful thinking advertiser that it is not only one of the very strongest advertising mediums in America, but also the fact that no other paper can possibly cover the territory or give the advertiser the same value where mail order or "experimental" money may be used. The annual output of the Grand Rapids manufacturing industries is over $8,500,000, and they employ 16,000 m-en. Mr. Charles J. Billson, 86 Tribune Building, New York, or Tribune Building, Chicago.

DISPATCH is the largest daily paper in the Northwest outside of Chicago, exceeding in circulation the combined issues of the two next largest papers in St. Paul. Covers its field completely. Many of the large local advertisers use no other paper. Carries more advertising, local and foreign, than any paper in the Twin Cities. Furnishes sworn statements of circulation for every day in the year. The best medium in the Northwest for any kind of business. The weekly DISPATCH, price 25 cents per year, goes to the prosperous farming districts of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Northern Michigan, North and South Dakota, Montana, Iowa and Nebraska. We now have over 50,000 weekly subscribers paid in advance.

Publisher's announcement.—Every year shows an increase in business. The PIONEER PRESS buys and publishes more live news than any other paper in the Northwest, and the reading public appreciates this fact. It has the confidence of its readers, and they are loyal to it. While it is the oldest paper in the Northwest, it does not rely on that prestige, but is the leader in progressiveness. Advertisers who use its columns are certain of results, and a test of their effectiveness is confidently invited from those who have not tried them and who desire to reach a class of people who have money to spend.

The absolute correctness of the latest circulation rating accorded the Kansas City Star is guaranteed by the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, who will pay one hundred dollars to the first person who successfully controverts its accuracy. Publisher's announcement.—AWARDED FEBRUARY 15, 1899, BY Printers' Ink, THE LITTLE SCHOOLMASTER IN HEART OF ADVERTISING, TO "THE KANSAS CITY STAR;" THAT PAPER, AFTER FOUR MONTHS' CAREFUL WEIGH-

ING OF EVIDENCE, HAVING BEEN PRONOUNCED THE ONE PUBLISHED WEST OF CHICAGO WHICH GIVES AN ADVERTISER THE BEST SERVICE IN PROPORTION TO THE PRICE CHARGED.

THE STAR accepts all advertising on condition that the paid circulation of its daily and Sunday editions exceeds 100,000 each issue and that the paid in-advance circulation of its weekly edition exceeds 200,000 each issue, or no charge whatever is made. The circulation of its daily and Sunday editions is more than double the combined circulation of all the other Kansas City dailies, and its advertising rate is less per thousand of circulation than that of any other paper west of Chicago. Kansas City advertisers pay THE STAR annually more money than they pay to all other local mediums.

THE STAR's morning paper, THE KANSAS CITY TIMES, has an actual circulation of over 60,000 copies—all samples, free copies and waste deducted.

The total amount received at the Kansas City postoffice for second-class postage for fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, was $128,271.61, of which amount THE STAR paid $56,581.90, or 44 1/10 per cent.

Publisher's announcement.—The actual average circulation of THE GAZETTE for the eight months ending August, 31, 1902, was 15,405 daily and 17,838 Sunday, and for the month of August, daily 18,875, Sunday 25,001. THE GAZETTE is the only morning and the only Sunday paper in St. Joseph, and its local paid circulation is absolutely guaranteed to be larger than either of the two afternoon papers. THE GAZETTE is the only metropolitan democratic daily in Missouri outside of St. Louis. Favorable train service puts THE GAZETTE first in the field in Northern Kansas, Southern Nebraska, Northwestern Missouri and Southern Iowa, ahead of Kansas City, Omaha and Des Moines morning papers. THE GAZETTE is further the first morning paper delivered on five hundred rural routes. Carries more want advertisements than the two evening papers combined.

Publisher's announcement.—The advertising situation in Hackensack and vicinity is simply this: The EVENING RECORD circulates an average of 3,000 copies daily. One-half this number goes into 1,500 homes where no other Hackensack paper is taken. The other half goes where one or the other of the town weeklies go. It follows, therefore, that an advertiser in the RECORD covers the entire field six times a week, while its two competitors cover only half the field once a week. If he wishes to use the weeklies he simply reaches 1,500 families already reached. The other 1,500 he cannot reach at all, except by using the RECORD.

Publisher's announcement.—The Newark News presents an exceptional opportunity to the advertiser to reach through one medium the people of a city numbering over 260,000 inhabitants, and suburban communities numbering about 150,000 more. Newark, N. J., is peculiarly situated in regard to newspapers. There are only two English daily papers, both issued in the afternoon. The News has now a circulation of more than 50,000 copies net; that is, deducting all returns, overs and waste, and counting only those that go out in the regular course of business and are paid for. This largely exceeds that of any other paper in New Jersey. It is a high-class, two cent newspaper. It thoroughly covers the field and is the home paper, high in character and thoroughly read. M. Lee Starke, Manager General Advertising, Tribune building, New York. Chicago office, Tribune building. E. A. Westfall, New York local agent, Tribune building. Publication office, News building, 215-217 Market street, Newark, N. J.

NEW JERSEY FREIE ZEITUNG; every morning except Sunday, DER ERZAEHLER, Sundays, and WEEKLY, Wednesdays; German; independent-republican; daily eight to twelve, Sunday twenty to twenty-four, weekly eight pages 15x23; subscription—daily with Sunday $9, Sunday $2, weekly 50 cents; established—daily and Sunday 1838, weekly 1879; Frederick Kuhn, editor; Benedict Prieth, publisher. Office, 75 Market street.

Publisher's announcement.—There are over 100,000 Germans in Essex County, and as the FREIE ZEITUNG is the only German paper in the county, it is the only medium through which this large and prosperous part of the population can be reached. The FREIE ZEITUNG is essentially a home paper, having no street sales to speak of. A recent canvass of the county has shown that 80 per cent of the German families read the FREIE ZEITUNG. This proves conclusively that the advertiser can not reach the Germans of Newark by using the English papers.

AT the convention of the Association of American Advertisers, held on January 29 and 30, 1902, at Delmonico's, New York City, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

It is the sense of this convention that the labor expended and the statistics obtained by the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, during the thirty-four years of its existence, have been invaluable to advertisers. Although their definition of circulation is the number of copies printed, and not the more exhaustive and satisfactory definition recognized by this convention, which requires a knowledge of the net paid circulation and its distribution, still it is believed that this Directory more than any other has kept before advertisers the fact that a correct knowledge of circulation is essential to the successful advertiser.

Publisher's announcement.—Buffalo's great newspaper, the EXPRESS, holds an enviable place in the regard of advertisers. It gives them both quantity and quality for their money. Its circulation both daily and Sunday is pure gold. Other Buffalo papers reach a part of the people who buy, but the EXPRESS reaches practically all the buyers there are. That is because it is a great newspaper first, and a splendid advertising medium afterward. Its readers can read, and it is worth your while to address them. For an advertiser not to be known to the readers of the EXPRESS is to argue himself unknown in Buffalo. See advertisement on opposite page.

Publisher's announcement.—The circulation of the Buffalo REVIEW is of such a character that the thoughtful, careful advertiser must take it into consideration. The REVIEW, while sold at a popular price, is essentially a newspaper for that element of the population which insists upon accuracy, reliability and truth. The REVIEW became a competitor in the Buffalo field for general clientele just before the outbreak of the Spanish American war, at that period in the history of the country when there was a popular reaction against the sensationalism and falsehood of the so-called yellow newspapers. During the Spanish-American war, the REVIEW was the only paper in Buffalo publishing the reports of the New York Sun, which were generally admitted to be the most accurate, the most reliable and the most intelligent of any written. This fact was not lost upon the people of Buffalo, and because of its splendid war news the REVIEW obtained an instantaneous hold upon public confidence, which it has not lost. The circulation of the REVIEW is of such a quality and represents so large a percentage of the intelligence and public spirit of the people of Buffalo and the surrounding towns, that advertisers obtain most satisfactory and brilliant results from patronizing its columns.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE BULLETIN.

One of the best agricultural quarterlies published. Caters to the intelligent class of farmers—those who have money to spend. Has a reputation for being a strong, pulling advertising medium. The large circulation of the FARMERS' INSTITUTE BULLETIN and its reasonable advertising rates make it a very attractive proposition for advertisers. Those who have not tested the merits of this publication should do so now.

Perhaps it would be policy to say that the American Newspaper Directory is second only to the Lord & Thomas Directory. As a matter of plain truth, however, there's only one. The American Newspaper Directory is the Webster's Dictionary of advertising. As for its integrity, I don't believe that any fair-minded man ever questions Mr. Rowell's motives, be he publisher or advertiser, and I have absolutely no sympathy whatever with the howl that is raised against his efforts to put circulation upon an honest, open basis.—*Daniel M. ALONE IN ITS FIELD

That's a broad assertion to make in these days of keen competition. There is only one publication, though, that is absolutely non-partisan, non-sectarian and exclusively devoted to News, presenting entertainingly everything of importance.

THE GREAT ROUND WORLD

does all this each week, and once in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, with novel and attractive features. Every issue offers advertisers a large and valuable circulation at rates admitted to be exceedingly low. Advertisers renew their contracts unsolicited—that tells the story. Publisher's announcement.—PRINTERS' INK is a magazine devoted to the general subject of advertising. Its standing and influence is recognized throughout the entire country. Its unsolicited judgment upon advertising matters is of value to intelligent advertisers as being that of a recognized authority.—Chicago (Ill.) News.

PRINTERS' INK is devoted exclusively to the interests of advertisers and is the representative journal of its class. Leads in circulation, influence and character. It aims to teach good advertising methods—how to prepare good copy and the value of different mediums, by conducting wide-open discussions on any topic interesting to advertisers. Every subject is treated from the advertiser's standpoint. Subscription price, \$5 a year. Advertising rates: Classified, 25 cents a line each time; display, 50 cents a line; $\frac{1}{4}$ -page, \$25; $\frac{1}{2}$ -page, \$50; whole page, \$100 each time. Address PRINTERS' INK, 10 Spruce St., New York. See advertisement on opposite page.

Publisher's announcement.—MEN'S WEAR circulates east of the Mississippi River in every State except Illinois and Wisconsin, exclusively. Published semi-monthly (which is twice as often as any other trade journal in its line except the Chicago Apparel Gazette), it prints all the latest news and differs in this respect from any other men's wearing apparel periodical. Its fashion, merchandise and store management departments are edited by experts, while all important sections of the country are covered by trained correspondents. Wholesale markets, primary and intermediate, are thus brought into close and constant touch with the retail trade through the medium of MEN'S WEAR. Advertisers get the benefit of a larger bona fide, paid up circulation than any other journal published for the purpose of disseminating trustworthy information on clothing, furnishing goods, hats and shoes. Exact facts as to value of circulation and territories covered will be furnished on application.

Publisher's announcement.—This journal is credited by all advertising agencies as issuing more than the combined circulation of its contemporaries. May and June of each year, when our trade meets in annual convention, the PLUMBERS' TRADE JOURNAL prints each issue about 25,000 copies. Christmas issue each year runs up to over 30,000 copies. Books will be shown to verify is an educational monthly magazine of the highest artistic excellence, devoted to the literature and music of the violin, mandolin, guitar, banjo, zither and harp.

THE CADENZA

It is the best advertising medium in the world of its class.

Those having musical specialties to sell cannot afford to miss the advantages offered by THE CADENZA.

The Growth of the Circulation of "THE CATERER"

JANUARY, 1901, 3,500
APRIL, 1901, a little in excess of 4,500
SEPTEMBER, 1901, 5,000

} May, 1902, 6,000

This circulation (which is exclusive of left-over copies, copies sent to exchanges, etc.) is a great deal larger than that of any other hotel or similar publication in either this country or Europe. The reason for the steady increase of circulation is that the articles and general information which have appeared in THE CATERER during the past two years have made all those engaged in the hotel, club and restaurant business ready and anxious to subscribe for it.

The result to the advertiser who wishes to sell to the line we cover (an extremely rich field) is that this paper offers a circulation that reads and studies its columns.

A sample copy will be sent you promptly on request.

The Most Independent and Comprehensive of Medical Journals.

FIFTEENTH YEAR.

Advisers often have motives of their own. But advertisers who investigate for themselves can ascertain positively that is a medium unsurpassed in the two grand factors of profitable advertising. What are they? First:—Comprehensive Circulation. The Medical Circulation of "Modern Medical Science" is never less than 20,000 in any month—prove it any way you will—and penetrates every section of English-speaking America. Second:—Interesting and valuable to its class of readers. Intelligent comparison of any number of "Modern Medical Science" with any other medical journal whatever will find in it the freshest and fullest production of important Medical Intelligence anywhere to be found in periodical print; and the actual returns to its advertisers confirm the presumption that it must therefore be looked for and read with uncommon interest by physicians.
